

Configuring a Creative Webcam and Microphone in MSN Messenger

Keywords / Key Phrases: setting up web cam, setting up microphone, configuring a web cam, configuring a web cam and microphone, microphone in MSN Messenger

Summary:

- ✓ Learn how to configure a Creative Web Cam and microphone in MSN Messenger.

Once you have your web cam and microphone setup and both have been tested. Do the following to configure them in MSN Messenger.

1. Double-click the MSN Messenger icon and log on.
2. Click Tools, and then click Audio/Video Tuning Wizard. Click Next. to start the wizard.
3. On the first wizard page, under Camera, click the camera you want to use from the list. Click Next.
4. Position the camera so that you can see yourself or the subject in the window. Click Next.

5. When prompted, position the microphone 3-5 inches from yourself or your subject. Click Next.
6. Select the microphone and speakers you are using from the choices or select I am using headphones. Click Next.

7. Select Click to test speakers, and move the slider up or down to set the volume. Click Stop when finished, and Next to continue through the wizard.
8. When prompted, speak into the microphone and move the microphone closer or farther away to get the desired volume. Click Next, and then click Finish.

Further Suggestions

---

SID 10390 - Using a Microphone with online chat applications

Last updated: July 16th, 2010